

EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS VOLUNTEERING at BASEBALLSCHULE

What is Baseballschule?

www.baseballschule.at

Baseball-Schule Wien is a non-profit organisation in Vienna that promotes exercise and health of children and young people. We use innovative concepts and baseball as a platform to support the development of children and youngsters. Our target group are kids between the ages of 4 and 16. We want to give young people a positive perspective on life and all its challenges.

Our motto is "Freedom to perform!". To us it means giving children the freedom to perform, in sports as well as in life. The skills and competences they learn with us shall open doors to a bright future. A future where they have the freedom to perform and live a self-determined life. We live by the vision that a healthy mindset is critical for success in sports as well as in life. Applying our Positive Coaching methods to help increase core strengths like happiness, hope, optimism, wellbeing, resilience, and flow. In other words, it is about how young athletes can feel good and thrive applying their natural strengths to make the best of themselves, in every situation.

Since 2019 our Baseball-Schule has introduced Baseball to more than 8500 kids in Vienna.

In the year 2022 alone, we have organized 17 sporting festivals for schools, participated in international tournaments in Italy and Croatia, held 2 huge sporting events with 100+ people attending. In our third year of existence we have institutional partnerships from Australia to Italy, from Slovenia to Germany and from Poland to USA. We cooperate with two universities on research projects as well as with an Austrian TV station and the Austrian foundation for innovation in education.

Diversity has always meant a way to strengthen our teams, and we look forward to including a European Solidarity Corps volunteer in our team!
